Regarding: Raymond Lamatrice and Third Street Exit

To whom it may concern,

I have in many years of entertainment management seen untold numbers of musicians and entertainers come and go for various reasons. A few will remain outstanding in my mind forevermore. Ray Lamatrice and Third Street Exit is definitely one of them.

During the last 7 years as the entertainment director and music contractor for The Ritz-Carlton, Naples, I have had the pleasure to engage the artistry and vocal talents of Third Street Exit for The Club, conventions and private group functions. The response from the management and staff of the hotel, our clients and their meeting planners has always been very positive.

I can always depend on Third Street Exit to be on time, able and willing to adapt to any situation and accommodate musically, any needs or requests that our clients, guests or the hotel asks of them.

Ray Lamatrice and the members of Third Street Exit are truly talented professionals. I always look forward to working with them. They have my highest recommendation.

Sincerely,

Jack D. Rinaldi
